

SAFETY4SISTERS AND SALFORD WOMENS AID

Training Events

We are hosting two training days run by RIGHTS OF WOMEN - this is important training for any organisations working with women who are experiencing domestic abuse and who have immigration issues or are under EEA regulations. After training in July many of those attending felt it was too much information on one day so we are holding it on different days see below;

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND IMMIGRATION
Part1
Wednesday 21/11/21012 10 am – 4pm
EAA Law , the changes to regulations and access to welfare benefits for EEA third party nationals
Part 2
Wednesday 05/12/2012 10 am – 4pm
DV rule, new DDV concession (replacing Sojourners), and no recourse to public funds

Cost:

£25.00 PER DAY

Venue:

THE METHODIST CENTRAL HALL,

OLDHAM STREET,

MANCHESTER

M1 1JQ

Training is open to any agencies and is for men and women.

Bring your own dinner (refreshments provided in-between.)

If you would like to book onto either or both courses please email; Dawn Redshaw at dawn.a.redshaw@salford.gov.uk She will send you a booking form.
